Christmas, 2018

Dear Nightwatch friends,

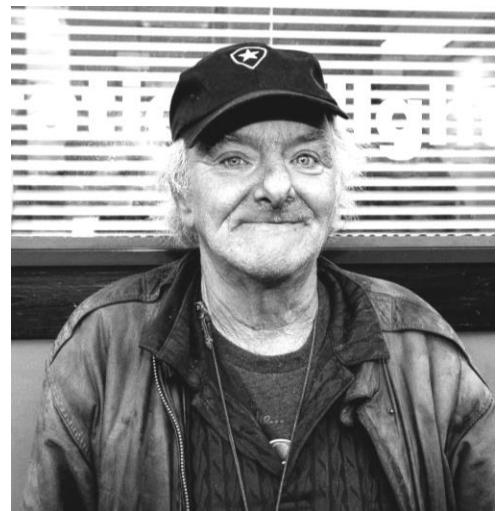

Thank you so much for your care and support of homeless people at Operation Nightwatch in 2018.

I don't know about you, but I look at a lot of Christmas cards this time of year. The sentiments can be silly or religious or personal. But one line jumped out from a card I got from a long-time Nightwatch volunteer and donor. It said:

Love comes and changes everything.

Love is at the heart of Operation Nightwatch. We are called to "love our neighbor." Thanks to people like you, Nightwatch is able to extend God's love for all people.

- We were able to provide stable, overnight shelter the whole year for 50 guys in the University District. That took loving sacrifices by generous people like you.
- Because love compels us, we reach out to people surviving on Seattle streets.
- Loving, compassionate volunteers will provide over 45,000 meals by the end of the year.
- When Nightwatch Senior Housing required emergency repairs, a loving community gathered around to ease the impact of $240,000 in construction costs, preserving a home for 24 vulnerable tenants.

Love comes and changes everything.

The New Year will bring new challenges and opportunities for Nightwatch, and for the people we serve. Are you ready? Will you join me in making a commitment with your time and resources to impact homeless people in Seattle, to extend love to people on the margins?

Please take the time right now to let us know that you are with us for 2019 by donating online at www.seattlenightwatch.org or returning the enclosed envelope.

I look forward to hearing from you. Together, let's see what God can do through Nightwatch, caring for our neighbors.

God grant joy to you all in the New Year.

Rick Reynolds
Executive Director
